Description

This pair of unusual, beautifully made fire dogs are pure Arts and Crafts and date from around 1910-1915. In the 27 years of trading, we have never had a pair like them in stock. Made in copper and brass, the front of the andirons stand at 38cm in height and the feet are 13.5cm across; they are 19cm deep and the back is 18cm in height. The large copper flower heads have six petal shapes around and a brass ball in the centre. These flowers measure approximately 10cm in diameter. The main frame of the fire dogs are solid brass with decorative copper swirls and shapes. They are solid and weigh approximately 1.8kgs each. They have been lightly polished but not lacquered. Postage and packing within the UK mainland only has been included in the price and for remote parts of the UK or abroad, please contact us for a quote for delivery. Alternatively, they can be viewed in Surrey by appointment as we no longer trade through a retail outlet. Please contact us to arrange a viewing.
