Description

A very fine, solid silver, Edwardian Vesta case. The pattern is exceptionally attractive, featuring flora and swags design with an empty cartouch in the centre. There is a good loop for attaching at the top. The lid opens and closes perfectly and firmly, with a good neat hinge to one side. When the lid is opened clear hallmarks are revealed on the inside of the top and also on the lip that fits under the top: Birmingham 1901 with maker's mark: George Unite. This interior lip is lightly gilded. Condition: This Vesta case is in excellent used condition with no dents or marks to the silver. Hallmarks: Birmingham 1901 by George Unite. Measurements: Height 6.6cm (including loop). Width: 4.5cm. Depth: 1.58cm approx. Weight 42.84grams approx.
