Description

A charming antique Victorian needlework fire screen in rosewood. With barley twist supports topped with turned finials and a pierced top rail. It has scroll work to the top and bottom and stands on chamfered feet. The needlework screen has floral patterns in a gothic revival manner. A very decorative and good quality piece. Construction/Wood: Rosewood Condition Report: Solid and sturdy frame. Some wear and marks to the needlework screen, a lot of the beads have fallen off. Other wear commensurate with age. Would have originally had more finials to top and bottom – some holes where they would have been. Dimensions: Width: 67cm Depth of Feet: 28cm Height to Finials: 98cm
