Description

Small Edwardian brushing slide chest This small mahogany chest of drawers is fitted what is known as a brushing slide. The slide was originally used by the butler to brush the gentlemen's trousers, the feature was used later as a multi-purpose idea and could be used for writing, serving or just as having another useful surface. This small chest of drawers can be used in many places in the modern home, as its size makes it useful in so many situations. The chest is fitted with 4 graduated drawers and its original brass swing handles. 73cms wide (28 3/4ins) 44.5cms deep (17 1/2ins) 78cms high (30 3/4ins) PRICE MATCHING Antiques are quite unique as it is impossible to price match.
