Description

A stylish slim and tall antique Edwardian oak bureau dating from circa 1910. It comprises a fall below a gallery top, over a cupboard on arched feet. The fall front drops down to reveal pigeon holes and a drawer to the interior. The fall and cupboard have an applied blind fretwork decoration while the gallery has a pierced back. A good quality bureau, in good condition with beautifully figured oak with good colour and original warm patina.

Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Good condition. Good colour and original warm patina. Wear and marks commensurate with age. The lock does not work. Some of the applied blind fretwork is missing to the fall. A scuff to one side (see photo). Dimensions: Width: 64cm Depth at top: 18cm Depth at cupboard: 25cm Depth at Feet: 34cm Height to Fall: 76cm Height to Top: 122cm
