Description

Fine early Georgian small size North of England mahogany chest with a slide. The chest with moulded canted corners, brushing slide with original brass knobs and very nice bold shape original ogee shape bracket feet. Four long drawers with moulded edges, the drawers being oak lined with the base boards going from front to back, original iron locks and original brass swan neck handles. The whole piece is a wonderful colour with deep original patination. There are one or two old veneer repairs but basically this is a very nice early mahogany chest of drawers that is a good neat size and a lovely colour. SIZE; 37 1/2" wide max, 19" deep and 33" high CIRCA; 1750 - 1760
