Description

A wonderful burr walnut Dutch Bombay bookcase / display cabinet. This lovely quality and well proportioned bookcase has obtained a delightful warm colour and patina with striking burr walnut veneers dating to circa 1930/50's. The shaped top having a carved foliate leaf with a cavetto moulded cornice above a domed and carved astrical glazed door with flanking glazed side panels and three interior adjustable shelves. The bombay shaped base with three shaped and cockbeaded oak lined drawers with burr walnut veneers, ornate brass handles and escutcheons having shaped sides is raised on carved front ball and claw feet and bracket feet to the rear. A very good quality bookcase / display cabinet with a good colour which has been restored using traditional polishing methods.
