Description

18th Century French Copper Dairy Pail or Log Bucket This is a lovely looking 18th Century Dairy Pail, it has been used as a log bucket and works very well as such. The pail is an early piece it is all in copper and has a folded seam on both sides, the copper is set on a riveted iron base and has an iron swing handle, the bucket is in very sound condition, the interior was originally tinned but is mostly worn away now there are no splits or holes or serious dents The bucket is 11" high, not including the height of the handle and 13" in diameter NC129 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, Delivery times vary according to your location usually 7 to 28 days We only operate an online store and regrettably viewing in person is not an option. In the unlikely event you wish to return an item you should contact us immediately.
