Description

Fine quality antique walnut cocktail drinks cabinet in excellent original condition, dating to around the 1920-30's period. There are four doors, top & bottom, with stunning burr walnut panels & etched brass escutcheons. There are superb carvings on the top of this cabinet & more around the base. As you can see in the images, the top half is beautifully fitted out & is sycamore lined, with a mirrored back & base. There is also a pull out mirrored slide for pouring out the drinks. There are other original features inside too, like the original cocktail sticks & even an internal light which will need to be re-wired. I believe there should be a couple of internal shelves, because you can see the supports. I'm sure we have them, or if not I will supply new ones before this piece goes out. The bottom section as you can see was more for storage. This is one of the nicest examples of this type of cabinet I've had. Width - 36", 91 cm Depth - 18.5", 47 cm Height - 66", 167 cm
