Description

Unusual Wedgwood majolica salad bowl with silver plated rim and matching pair of servers in a lovely bright version of the argenta series based on a lemon ground. Attractive shape with bulbous base with fluted moulding and set on 3 ornate scrolled feet. Floral garlands with ribbons run around the sides. The handles of the servers have seashells and seaweed moulded decoration. Decorated with a deeper yellow, pale and dark pink and a rich khaki green. Impressed marks date for 1872. The bowl measures 25.5cm (10") wide and 12.7cm (5") high and the servers are 27cm (10 5/8") long. Condition is very good with just light surface wear good and appropriate for age and use.
