Description

In good restored condition this set of eight 19th Century dining chairs date from the reign of Queen Victoria. All joints have been checked and rejointed if needed and the timber has been French polished, seats have just been reupholstered. The whole set is now ready to compliment a dining table and they are ready for your guests. (seat height a normal 18ins and all other measurements are very normal for these chairs) The seats as you will notice in the pictures have a rather pleasing bow shape and they have a well shaped turned leg. We have dining tables if required of course, usually around 50 in stock at any one time seating from 2 to about 20 people. We have another set of Balloon Backs which are currently unrestored and could be upholstered in your own choice of fabric if required. Dont hesitate to give us a call to discuss 01565 874075
