Description

A nice pair of antique port or sherry glasses, circa 1830, the slice-cut bowls with an everted rim and upon a knife edge knopped stem with a circular foot. These glasses were originally intended for gin or brandy but make good modern day port glasses. A very nice quality pair of glasses, of good weight in perfect condition. As they are hand made there are slight discrepancies, including the width of the foot. These glasses 10cm high
