Description

Four near matching 19th Century port or sherry glasses, circa 1830 - 1840, each with a slice-cut bucket shaped bowl raised on a knotted stem and a circular foot. As these are hand made there are slight differences in design and size which ranges between 10cm and 10.4 cm high. All are in perfect condition. It's true that drink tastes better out of an antique glass! Port not included!!
