Description

From the early C19th Century this very decorative oak armoire has 2 panel doors enclosing hanging space. It is in good condition with some old repairs consistent with age and useage. As is common with armoires it "flat-packs" for ease of transport and instalation. n.b. The armoire would originally have had full width shelves, it is now given over to hanging space- it is possible to fit shelves in conjunction with hanging space.
