Description

Welcome to Mersham Manor Antiques- An excellent quality Georgian revival, Victorian wardrobe. c1890 In an interesting design as the front fascia is designed to appear as a linen-press, as the doors incorporate dummy drawers. To the top is a detachable moulded cornice over two doors, having oval panelled doors, with the most wonderful ovals of highly figured mahogany. The doors open to reveal a hanging space, having the original brass hanging rail, with two brass hooks to the back. To the base internally is a large single drawer. The drawer handles are particularly charming, having a shooting and gun dogs scene in repousse. Standing on bracket feet. Original brass lock and escutcheon, no key, closes without. Sliding brass locks to the left door. Good rich colour. Dismantles to two sections. The condition overall is very good antique condition, with general expected signs of use consistent with age. The dimensions are. Height-201cm Width-110cm including cornice. Width-99.5 main body. Depth-47.5cm. Depth internally for hanging-44cm. Fits a modern hanger. VIEWING. Viewing is available at our showroom in Kent, please contact us to arrange an appointment-...
