Description

A fine quality round mahogany dining table from the William IV period. Of fine construction using an excellent grade of solid mahogany timber. The graining to the timber in the table top is superb. The round top has a nice deep freeze which is decorated with bobbin mouldings. The tri-form base is very elegant and each leg terminates in a wonderful scrolled foot, each with its original castor present. The table top tilts up if desired to further exhibit its beauty. This table could serve equally well as a dining table (seating up to 6) or as a center table. We have had this table sympathetically repolished to a very high standard. It is now offered for sale in excellent condition with a lovely depth of colour and patina. Dimensions: Diameter 119cms Height 71cms
