Description

Antique French carved walnut open arm sofa in good original condition & dating from around the 1920-30's period. I obtained this sofa privately in London along with the pair of matching side chairs also on the site & it's in the same condition as I received it in. The upholstery has been done quite recently & looks like velvet. I thought I would leave as is, because it's in great condition. Having said that, I understand that the colour might not be to everyone's taste, so I'll keep the price down. If someone wants me to have it recovered, I can get it done for around £150, plus fabric. Width - 126 cm Depth - 64 cm Height - 94 cm Seat height - 40 cm
