Description

Fine quality antique Regency mahogany sideboard with three frieze drawers. The finest mahogany has been used to construct this cabinet which over the years has mellowed into a gorgeous colour. The figured mahogany top with cross-grained edge sitting over three mahogany lined and gadrooned drawers with brass ring handles. Below which are two doors having gadrooned internal edges with inset brass grills which open to reveal a removable shelf with cross-grained mahogany edge all raised on original bracket feet. The quality of this cabinet is second to none with the sides being better quality mahogany than you would find on most tops of this period. It is in extremely good condition having been gently restored using traditional methods and has retained the most fantastic colour.
