Description

An extremely fine quality ebonised French marble topped and brass inlaid commode in the Directoire style and manner of Maison Jansen. Dating to circa 1920 this very fine quality commode has a shaped and moulded marble top over a brass panelled drawer with ring handles and central escutcheon. Below which are two drawers enclosed by a moulded brass boarder flanked by brass fluted columns. Raised on elegant tapering turned feet with brass sabots having paneled sides this commode is in exceptional condition having been fully restored with a working lockable key. This commode is a fine example which will work in both contemporary and traditional settings. Dimensions: Width: 46 inches - 117cm Height: 35 inches - 89cm Depth: 24 3/4 inches - 63cm
