Description

A good looking mahogany desk chair in nice clean condition, very useable. This tub shaped chair is good for support and is a comfy example. Sitting on a cabriole leg it has a shaped arm for your elbows / arms. This does not have to go with a desk of course it would make a good kitchen chair or sitting chair. We certainly have a couple of desks that will accompany this chair if required. There are some on our web site, dont hesitate to have a look. Dating from circa 1900 it is ready to go, the seat ht is a normal 46cms and the width is stated on its maximum point of the end of the arms.
