Description

The most magnificent oversized napkin ring measuring 2 1/4" in diameter x 2" tall, much larger than most. The gauge of English sterling silver is good and weighty and made by the top notch silversmith, William Hutton. The napkin ring has a full English hallmark for London 1895, a true Victorian example. Decorated with an all-over repoussé design surrounding a vacant cartouche to the front. This wonderful example is lucky enough to sit in its original velvet and silk lined leather case, signed by the London retailer. The case measuring 3 3/4" x 3 1/4" x 2 1/2". Excellent condition.
