Description

A fine quality pair of antique walnut Gothic armchairs / throne chairs. Of very good form with finely executed carving this delightful pair of walnut chairs date to circa 1900. Constructed from solid walnut and in the Gothic style these chairs are of good proportions and a well sized pair. The tops having a typical shaped and carved Gothic pediment held by turned and twisted column supports with sweeping arms terminating with carved lions heads. The front legs being turned and twisted with square chamfered rear legs united with an H stretcher. In excellent original condition having been wax polished these pair of armchairs have a lovely colour and patina. The upholstery is sound and the chairs just need recovering which we can arrange if needed. A good pair of rare Gothic style chairs which will work in most settings.
