Description

A good country house leather studded umbrella stand, with decorative stud work. This stand is divided into two stick storage sections with a brass rail. The colour of the leather is superb, there are a few minor blemishes to the surface leather, but these are minimal. The stand is complete with its original metal removable drip tray. A really fabulous decorative piece, full of character. c.1905 Height: 29" (74cm) Width: 19" (48cm) Depth: 9.75" (25cm)
