Description

Fantastic example of a fine Victorian Games Compendium contained within a beautiful rosewood box. The lid of the box lifts to allow the front doors of the box to open. Contained within the Compendium is an excellent and complete carved wood chess set which is housed in the doors on individual spikes. There is a complete turned wood draughts / chequers set and a bone Domino set. There are 6 small bone dice in the top of the box and a cribbage board with 4 marks. The top layer containing the draughts lifts out with two small brass loops. Below is a further layer with many thick red counters and many more thin red and white counters. There are also 12 small red and white counters with spiked tops and a set of rectangular counters. There are some small round coloured counters that look like tiddlywinks and also some coloured rectangular pieces. This layer has two leather tabs which allow it to be lifted out and this reveals the final layer which houses a set of painted lead horses and jockeys. There is also a matching horse jump fence and two water jumps. There are 3 tinplate race cars. Finally there is a wooden dice roller and a number of spare dice. Housed in the top of...
