Description

A lovey Austrian cold painted bronze Beatrix Potter figure group of Timmy Tiptoes and his wife Goody standing under an umbrella. The popular opinion is that these bronze Beatrix Potter figures were manufactured by Franz Bergman, and although they do not bear the Bergman stamp are generally too small to be marked. This figure has a hand written mark on the bottom which appears to read Bo/d. Condition is good, the paintwork is a little chipped in places but is all original, there is no damage to the bronze. 5cm high. Please see my listing for other Beatrix Potter Austrian bronze figures.
