Description

Antique brass bound campaign trunk Here we have this Victorian campaign trunk, made of teak and then brass bound to the corners. The lid opens to reveal open storage and a small storage section to one side. This trunk is of a great size that would suit most homes. These military campaign chests look great in so many places in the home and mostly people like to use them as coffee tables, as they are the perfect size. They make great conversation pieces and inspire the mind to what stories they could tell. The trunk has flush brass fittings and were set in with much care and attention. 76cms wide (30ins) 49.5cms deep (19 1/2ins) 43cms high (17ins) PRICE MATCHING Antiques are unique as it is impossible to price match.
