Description

A good quality Victorian silver plated coffee pot by Barker Bros of Sheffield dating from the late 19th Century, of oval tapering form, engraved with trailing flowers surrounding an oval reserve, the spout and scroll handle relief decorated with acanthus leaves, the lid with foliate engraving and ivory finial. The underside stamped the Barker Bros makers mark and the trademark 'BRITANOID'. In good condition for its age, no dents, splits or wear to the plate, there is some wear to the plate on the underside and there would originally have been insulators on the handle which are now missing. 21.5cm high.
