Description

A very attractive, small, Danish, antique pine single door wardrobe. It has a beautiful door with arched panels and a drawer at the bottom. Dating from around 1900 it is in lovely condition for its age. A typical elegant Danish style wardrobe with a door mounted on the original external wide opening hinges. In our opinion this piece would make a lovely child's wardrobe. Shown here in the bare wood having just been stripped of its original paint. The price includes our professional wax polishing service. Currently there are shelves inside as it has been used as a cupboard but these can be removed and we can fit a new brass hanging rail if you wish to use it as a wardrobe - please let us know of your requirements. Height: 71.5", width: 41", depth: 20", internal depth: 16.5"
