Description

A small antique pine wardrobe dating from 1900 with two doors and a bottom drawer. Lovely condition for its age, currently stripped to the bare wood ready for waxing or painting. There is some pretty flower carvings to the top and the doors are mounted on the original external hinges, allowing them to open fully. This wardrobe splits down the middle, into two sections, meaning it will go up any stairway and through any doorway. The internal depth is 19.5" making it deep enough for adult hangers and coat hangers. A new brass hanging rail will be fitted for you. Height 71", width 48.5", depth 24", internal depth 19.5"

Internal Ref: M3856C
