Description

A good size French antique pine double wardrobe dating from around 1900. It has two large panelled doors and panelled sides, the left hand door still has the original metal closing catches. All in very good condition for its age, will wax up beautifully. The internal depth of 24" means there's plenty of room for hanging the largest of clothing eg.coats A hanging rail (or shelf and hanging rail underneath) can be fitted for you. Just ask for options. This wardrobe totally dismantles so will go up any stairway and through any difficult doorway. If you'd like it as it is (in the bare wood) then the price would be £820 Height: 82", width: 63", depth: 27", internal depth: 24"208
