Description

A handsome 1930s Sackville pocket watch. The Swiss company General Watch Co set up in 1880 and sold watches under various names including Sackville and also the more well known Helvetia. The watch has a stem-winding movement, a good quality Swiss movement with 15 jewels and two adjustments, which is working well. The watch itself measures 45.5mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The rolled gold case is in very nice condition. The lens has a 3mm scratch but it is not too noticeable to the naked eye. The signed dial is in its original subtly textured finish and it is in lovely condition with just a little marking. The shaped hands are a particularly charming feature. The watch will be sent in a new presentation box.
