Description

A very good solid mahogany occasional, or lamp, table. Of fine construction in the manner of Chippendale. There is a decorative freeze under the rectangular top. The freeze has dentil mouldings and a blind-fretwork design which is crisply executed. The elegant out-swept legs are united by a stabilising under-tier. This attractive table would sit well in many rooms of the modern home. It is offered for sale in excellent original condition with a good colour and patina.
