Description

A wonderful example of an early twentieth century coin purse beautifully decorated with an all-over engraved design and a central circular vacant cartouche. The push button clasp and hinge are both in perfect working order and once opened reveals a lovely clean silk lined interior. The purse retains it's original sterling silver chain and finger ring. The purse is fully hallmarked for Birmingham 1913 together with the makers mark for the silversmith's, William Hair Haseler. Excellent condition measuring 4 1/2" x 1 3/4" x 1". 6 3/4" tall including chain and ring. Item ID:39095 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
