Description

This antique Swedish deep buttoned leather Chesterfield sofa has very generous proportions & is very comfortable. The leather is all original & in good condition. It's not like the normal English traditional chesterfields, because the back is higher, so it actually has far more comfort & support. This piece is also very heavy due to the quality of the build & I would date it to around the 1910 period. The leather has been professionally revived & polished, so the colour is really warm & it has loads of character. Length - 78", 198 cm Depth - 36", 92 cm Height - 34", 87 cm Seat Height - 18", 46 cm
