Description

We have checked the joints on these chairs and have given the French polish a refresh. They are in great condition and ready to entertain, the seats are in leather but are worn and although they are quite useable they could do with reupholstery really. They are accordingly priced of course and we will be happy to get the upholstery done for you if require. That should cost around £28 / 30 per chair plus vat, you will also need about 3.5m of fabric of choice. The Chippendale style chairs from the first half of the 1900s (1920s / 30s) are in good quality timber and have good colour. The backs have a good shape and an elegant pierced splat. The legs are cabriole and the arms on the carvers have a good shape. Size given below if for carver stand chair is 19ins across seat and 39ins tall, stand chair is 37 1/2 ins tall. Seats are all a normal 18ins high.
