Description

Early 19th.c. mahogany longcase clock c.1820. Fine mahogany case, the hood with a crisp swan neck pediment with brass roundels and blind fretwork carving over an arched glazed door flanked with turned and fluted columns. Slim case with beautiful flame mahogany veneers with inlaid stringing, fluted quarter columns, ogee mouldings and bracket feet. Charming enamelled face named for William Hunter of Dumfermlin (sic) and featuring a lovely hand painted decoration of Britannia stood with her shield and trident before a ship flying the red ensign of the Royal Navy. Further detail of golden pyramids and sea shells against a green ground. Eight day works striking the hours on a bell, functioning second hand and dummy date dial. Original weights and pendulum decorated with a scene of houses in a landscape. Excellent condition, the case has been cleaned and polished in our workshops. Works have been cleaned and overhauled and are sold with a 12 month guarantee. Details Dimensions: height 83", width 18", depth 9". Year: c.1820 Stock Number: 29570
