Description

In lovely French polished condition this exceptionally good quality Mahogany Bedside cabinet dates from the first half of the 1900s. It has a matching and equally well made and equally good condition dressing table. The bedside has the original cabinet furniture and a swan neck carved back on the exceedingly well coloured top. The door has a shaped and fielded panel with the Chippendale influenced blind fret down the face of the sides. The whole cabinet sits on splay bracket feet. Fantastic amount of work has been put into both pieces. The Bedside is £385 and the matching dressing table is £745. We are offering a special deal on the two for only £970.
