Description

Victorian pine Pembroke drop leaf table with elegant turned legs and a single drawer at one end. These tables are also known as an "Occasional" table, as they were bought out when one would have afternoon tea. It is rare to find pine pembroke table's and this is a lovely example. It is wax finished, ready for collection or delivery. We recently sold one to a customer who is going to use it while she does her needlework. She asked us to put some lovely brass castors on the legs so that she could wheel it in and out of its space, and to raise it up as it was a bit low for her. In our opinion it would also make a good gaming / puzzle table. Or in a kitchen if you're short of dining space. Height 28.5", width (leaves up) 39", width (leaves down) 19", length 40"
