Description

What a great and stunning set with great deco design and colour . This is a very rare and totally authentic Art deco 1930s ladies enamel dressing table set in it's original box. The set considering its age is in very good period condition with some minor colour wear in areas, The mirror has no chips , cracks, misting or foxing to the glass. The majority of the chrome is also bright and crisp with no noteable wear. The box is lined in cream silk and has some foxing marks and the exterior also shows some age related, shuts well with lovely clasps . This is a great set for a lover of the period and would great on a dressing table in a period or modern home .
