Description

A fabulous pair of wine or champagne bottle holders, larger enough to accommodate crystal decanters too. Each is pieced or reticulated and either side mounted with a ring handle hanging from a very regal looking Lion, very English and typical of the late Victorian or Edwardian era. The rim is beautifully cast with highlights of copper showing through the silver plate, original and just how they should be preserved. A good size having an aperture measuring 4 3/4". The overall dimensions: A rim diameter measuring 6 3/4" and standing 6" tall. Dating to c.1900 and in excellent condition with minor wear commensurate with age.
