Description

An elegant silver card case from the reign of King George V. This charming piece is made to look like an envelope and features etched banding to the front and rear with pricked detail and a vacant round cartouche to the lid. The sprung lid hinges upwards to reveal a fully gilded interior. A wonderful usable piece that will happily take a modern credit card, debit card and business card. A great gift idea. P&P contribution £8.00 UK £15.00 Worldwide Condition :- Excellent, with no splits or holes. The spring and hinge is strong. There is a couple of small pin prick marks to the front of the lid commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable - loss to the makers mark. Date :- Birmingham 1938. Width :- 9.25 cms. Height :- 6.5 cms.
