Description

A superb and rare set of six 18th Century silver serving or table spoons. These handsome and good quality examples are in Hanoverian pattern, with attractive rat-tails to the reverse of the bowls. In these days of somewhat scarce antique flatware, a set of six is a wonderful find. There are fading crests and the gauge of the silver is excellent. P&P contribution :- £8.00 UK £16.00 Worldwide Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits. The bowl tips are very good. A couple of spoons have very slight ripples to the bowls, commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. One spoon, which may be a contemporary addition has marks so 'pinched' that they are not readable. Maker :- Tompson Davis. Date :- London 1764. Length :- 20.75 cms. Bowl width :- 4.25 cms. Depth :- 1.5 cms.
