Description

17th Century Carved Oak Court Cupboard, Cottage Livery Cupboard This is an old and charming rustic piece of carved oak furniture, the top section has a long cupboard enclosed by 2 doors and a centre panel, each of the carved panels has the face of a warrior or similar character, it has a carved cornice on the top with fierce masks of the Green Man at either side The lower section has 2 drawers over a long shelved cupboard. This time the carved panels depict fleur des lys, vines and roses This piece dates from around 1660, this is reflected in its condition, it has had the hinges replaced a long time ago, they are blacksmith made and in the correct style, the metal locks are also replacements, however the interior wooden bolts are all original The wood worm is historic and is quite dead, this has been treated to make sure, there are minor old repairs to the feet, but a very sturdy and attractive piece The cupboard is 64" high, 48" wide and 22" deep NC185 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, Delivery times vary according to your location usually 7 to 28 days We only operate an online store and regretfully viewing in person is not an option.
