Description

A beautiful 19th Century horn beaker of good size with a silver rim and vacant shield shaped cartouche. The beaker has a lovely warm colour and patina, there is a slight indentation to the rim, this is minor and can be seen from the photographs. The horn vessel is in good order, the silver hallmark is indistinct but the date 1896 can be made out. This is a very elegant example of its type with good proportions of rim to beaker, a superb decorative piece. c.1896 Height: 5.5" (14cm) Diameter: 3" (8cm) Diameter of base: 1.7/8" (4.75cm)
