Description

PIERRE Le FAGUAYS: "Atalante": a large and most impressive Art Deco metal SCULPTURE which depicts an athletic and scantily-clad young woman in the act of throwing a spear. The artist has caught her mid-stride, supported on one leg with her left arm thrown out, as she attacks her foe with spear raised. Fully signed to the original stone base. 24ins (61cms) high. Pierre Le Faguays (1892-1935) was a prolific and versatile Art Deco avant-garde French sculptor, whose work greatly influenced the styles of the 1920's and 1930's.
