Description

A good quality solid rosewood Regency period CANTERBURY in excellent original and undamaged condition. The upper divisions are of solid rosewood with carved laurel leaves to the centre and turned spacers, whilst the base has four acorn finials to the corners and a mahogany lined frieze drawer, with turned legs and original castors. Good colour and patina. 21ins (53.5cms) wide. The name "Canterbury" may have been first used in 1803 by Sheraton to describe a magazine or music stand. But... why a "Canterbury"? Perhaps an archbishop of that City ordered one for his sheet music?
