Description

A very good quality Early Victorian Rosewood Pillar or Lamp Table. It has a well proportioned oblong Top with one drawer supported by an elegant turned column and with a base of four legs. It has recently been fully restored in our workshops. About the Date of Manufacture This antique was produced in the early Victorian period (circa 1837 - 1850). The Victorian era was the period of Queen Victoria's reign, from 20 June 1837 until her death on 22 January 1901. It was a long period of peace, prosperity, "refined sensibilities" and national self-confidence for the United Kingdom. Some scholars date the beginning of the period in terms of sensibilities and political concerns to the passage of the Reform Act 1832. All of the items that we advertise for sale have been as accurately described as possible and are in excellent condition, unless otherwise stated. Please note that we are also able to arrange a full shipping service for our customers. We offer a 14 day returns policy. In the unlikely event that you are not completely satisfied with your purchase we will issue a full refund of the purchase price less the return transport costs with an approved courier ...
