Description

Regency mahogany card or games table from circa 1820/30. The top of this rectangular table is in very good antique condition and colour, has rounded front corners and finished with an attractive cross banded border. The top swivels and folds over to reveal a baize interior surface for cards/games etc. The front and sides of the table have decorative flame mahogany veneers. The top is supported on four turned columns sitting on a base with typical swept regency legs and castors. This is a very nice hall, side or games table and measures (closed) width 37ins x 18ins x 28.5ins high. The table can be viewed by appointment at our store in Silsoe, Bedfordshire.
