Description

For sale is a good quality 9 Tube Grandfather Clock. The face is inscribed with "Gilbert Kidd Malton". The clock is in working order, the original owners had the movement put into an earlier oak case, which has been altered to take the movement, as the original case was too tall for the original owners new home. The clock has three chimes, Westminster, Whittington and St Michael. Overall, it is in good condition for its age. The clock case we believe to be early 19th century and the movement we believe to be circa 1900.
