Description

This high quality SOLID SILVER TEA CADDY SPOON was made by the much sought after silversmith, George Unite, in 1838. Featuring the classic 'Kings' design it is in superb condition with little wear despite its 180+ years of age. 'Kings' was designed by Henry and John Lias on commission from King George III, hence the name and is steeped in heritage. The pattern dates from around 1820 and was heavily influenced by the décor and ornamentation of the period and is based on the honeysuckle flower and shell and is perhaps one of the most famous patterns in the world. A lovely item of high quality which would make a superb gift or addition to any collection.
